

Class Capacity	Maximum 20 Students per class.
Course Content	This one day course involves identification of confined spaces and hazard identification, evaluation and control. The course reinforces the need for proper pre-planning procedures and provides rescue methods should the confined space worker be in peril. Content includes entry procedures, SCBA equipment, rescue techniques and safety equipment, reinforced by practical exercises. All OH&S legislation pertaining to confined spaces and SCBA will be covered. Students should wear older clothes, as the course includes practical exercises.
Course Length	The course length including the theory and practical session is approximately 8 hrs.
Course Completion	All students who complete the course successfully will each receive a personal wallet size Certificate . Pre Requisite of EnForm H2S Alive certificate within 3 months.
Employer Responsibilities	The Occupational Health and Safety Act, 1993 and The Occupational Health and Safety Regulations, 1996 Section 19(1) An employer shall ensure that a worker is trained in all matters that are necessary to protect the health and safety of the worker. 19(2) The training required by subsection (1) must include: 19(2)(a) procedures to be taken in the event of a fire or emergency.

“The New Standard In Safety”

www.haztechsafety.com

Email: training@haztechsafety.com

Toll Free: 1-866-919-9114